House Votes Pay Raise to Members

By JOHN BECKLER
WASHINGTON (AP) — Fatter pay checks for most federal workers were in prospect today after House passage of a pay raise bill that includes $7,500-a-year increases for members of Congress.

By the surprisingly large margin of 243 to 157 the House reversed its earlier defeat of a similar bill and cleared the way for Senate action on the $533-million package of pay boosts. It includes $7,500-a-year raises for judges, Cabinet officers and top federal executives, and increases ranging from 22.5 per cent at the top to 1.6 per cent at the bottom for 1.7 million government workers.

The average letter carrier would get a 5.6 per cent boost of $325 a year and the average government typist and file clerk would get a $310 a year raise. The bill is expected to be one of the first called up in the Senate after it completes action on the civil rights bill, and no difficulties are foreseen in its passage.

A number of considerations prompted the House to pass the bill this time after defeating one, 222 to 184, last March. The size of the proposed congressional raise was scaled down from $10,000 a year to $7,500 and it was made effective next January, instead of this year, making it easier for members to vote for it.

Of major importance in the view of the bill's backers, however, was the fact most state primary elections are now over. Last March the primaries were still to be faced and too many members felt it politically unwise to vote raises for themselves and then face the electorate.

Strong support from President Johnson also helped put the bill over this time, as did a powerful lobbying effort by the postal unions.

An amendment designed to eliminate the pain of voting for its own pay raises in the future was adopted by the House Thursday. It was offered by Rep. Morris K. Udall, D-Ariz., and would provide automatic increases for Congress whenever the top Civil Service grade gets a raise.

No. 1 Ordeal of Husbands Is 'Wife-Waiting,' Says That Irishman Hal Boyle

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — One of life's little ordeals for every husband is wife-waiting. Earning a living for a wife, a fellow finds out, is one of the easier things about marriage. It takes only about eight hours a day.

This leaves a man 16 full hours for wife-waiting and other such essential chores as sleeping, shaving, eating, walking the dog and obeying his children.

There are several kinds of wife-waiting, but they break down into four general classes: Waiting for her to make up her mind, get to the point, to shut up after she does get to the point, and to get dressed so you can go somewhere together. Getting ready is no problem to him. All he has to do is wash his face, put on a clean shirt, look in a mirror and say, "Oh, you handsome money-making devil, you." Then he could be off at a gallop—if it weren't for that little problem of waiting for his wife.

Wives are a terrible lot of trouble to themselves. They never have anything to wear, they claim, but they always manage to summon up a different wardrobe for every possible function.

Whatever the occasion, she has to outfit herself in a different manner. While she is putting on this, taking off that,

Europe in Trouble; Is U.S. Next?

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Europe's struggles with prosperity's problems could spread to the United States.

The immediate troubles in Europe and the distant threats here, are inflationary price increases and rising interest rates to fight them. Both are children of Europe's fast economic expansion and spreading consumer prosperity.

Placid as the U.S. monetary position looks today, Europe's moves to fight inflation by raising interest rates could roll American waters.

This is because much of our recent gains in bringing our international monetary transactions into better balance have been due to keeping idle investment money at home. Now, as Europe's interest rates go up, so does the yen of investors to reach for the higher yields abroad.

Europe's battle with inflation now contrasts with the slow rise in prices here in recent years. The rash of rising interest rates abroad of late contrasts with the stability here. American monetary authorities have been able to hold short-term rates high enough to keep money at home, and long-term rates low enough to encourage the economic growth which has become the national goal.

Part of the success is due to international monetary pacts preventing big swings of capital from nation to nation, which would upset currency exchanges and threaten another run on U.S. gold reserves. These international agreements are now being put to the test.

This week the National Bank of Denmark has increased to 6½ per cent from 5½ per cent its charges on loans to commercial banks.

Methodist Vacation School 22nd

Vacation Church School will begin at First Methodist Church Monday, June 22, with all children in the kindergartens, primary, and junior departments participating.

The staff follows: Miss Nannie Furkins, general secretary, kindergarten; Mrs. Clyde Monts, Mrs. Al Graves, Mrs. Kinard Davis, and Mrs. J. R. Forrester, and Mrs. Oris Thornton; Junior: Miss Del McLanahan, Secretary, Mrs. Lee Still, Mrs. Herman Smith, Mrs. James McLarty, Jr., Miss Kathleen Broach.

Young people from the Senior and Junior High Departments who will be participating as counselors, playground directors or in other capacities will be: Miss Effie Field, Miss Margie Waddle, Miss Linda Still, Miss Brenda Bain, Miss Peggy Franks, Jimmy Turner, Janice Russell, and Sue Russell. The theme for the course of study in each department will be Jesus Christ. Texts to be used are: "Jesus, the Teacher," by Lyon, for kindergarten, "Jesus Showed God's Love" by Hanson, for primary, and "He Was Called Jesus," by Tilley for junior's.

Sessions will begin at 9 o'clock each morning and continue until 11 o'clock.

Still other husbands try to improve themselves in some way while waiting for their wives. They take up hobbies, read long books or go next door and hold hands with a neighbor's wife.

Scranton Is Definitely Candidate

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP)—Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania today announced his candidacy for the Republican presidential nomination "to offer our party a choice."

The 46-year-old governor and former congressman has been saying for almost a year that he would accept only a "sincere and honest draft."

In an 11-hour speech arranged only Thursday night for the Republican State Convention of Maryland, Scranton declared the Republican party "is in danger if we let an exclusion-minded minority dominate our platform and choose our candidates."

"I have come here to offer our party a choice. I reject the echo we have thus far been handed, the echo of fear, or reaction, the echo from the never-never land that puts our nation backward to a lesser place in the world of free men," he said.

By RICHARD L. GRAVES

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP)—Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania will announce his candidacy for the Republican presidential nomination here today, sources close to the governor reported.

Craig Truax, Pennsylvania state Republican chairman, in a telegram to a state representative this morning said:

"The governor will announce his candidacy at the Maryland State Convention Friday. He has asked us to advise you first."

The telegram was to Rep. Eugene S. Rutherford, one of a group of legislators who went to Gettysburg, Pa., Thursday in an unsuccessful attempt to see former President Dwight D. Eisenhower on Scranton's behalf.

Scranton arranged to leave the capital at Harrisburg during the noon hour in a private plane for the trip to Baltimore. The Scranton family, with the exception of an older son, was to make the trip.

Later, Pennsylvania Rep. Thomas H. Worrlow and State Sen. John T. Van Sant reported receiving similar telegrams from Truax, who was not available for comment.

Jack Conmy, the governor's press secretary, said the governor had been mulling over his decision for several days.

Reminded that Scranton said previously he never felt "stirred" before about any presidential aspirations, Conmy was asked if the governor was "stirred" now.

"He's stirred," Conmy replied. Conmy said Scranton made Continued on Page Three

Erhard in U.S. on Eve New Crisis

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union and East Germany signed a friendship treaty today but avoided stirring up a major crisis with the West by stopping short of a World War II peace treaty.

Premier Khrushchev said the treaty would be an important contribution to "the peaceful regulation of the German question."

His announcement to the pact appeared couched in cautious terms. But East German Communist chief Walter Ulbricht, following the Soviet lead on the date at a Kremlin meeting, said the treaty provides that East Germany and the Soviet Union will regard isolated West Berlin as "an independent political entity which in no way is part of the West German Federal Republic and to which the competence of the West German Federal Republic does not extend."

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chancellor Ludwig Erhard of West Germany flew into Washington today to review the German and Berlin problems with President Johnson in the light of the Soviet-East German friendship pact announced in Moscow earlier today.

Erhard declined immediate comment on the pact, saying "I must see the text first. I cannot make a political comment knowing only what the headlines say."

Responding to the welcome extended at Andrews Air Force Base by Undersecretary of State W. Averell Harriman, Erhard said of his upcoming talks with Johnson:

"We have no concrete decisions to make, but it is opportune to draw a balance and coordinate our positions."

Also on hand at the airport was German Foreign Minister Gerhard Schröder who arrived Thursday and had two meetings with Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

German diplomatic sources said that, contrary to some reports, the two foreign ministers did not come to any decision on Continued on Page Three

Amendments Futile on Civil Rights

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—Southern foes of the civil rights bill have virtually abandoned hope of winning adoption of any additional amendments of consequence.

Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., leader of the Dixie forces, said today that the bill's supporters evidently are not going to take any more amendments. This was confirmed by Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., the bill's floor manager. He said in a separate interview that there might be some technical changes but nothing of substance.

"I don't think we have much chance on any of our amendments," Russell said, but he added that the Southerners will continue to offer them to put the Senate on record, even if they get only 20 to 30 votes.

"This is bad legislation, and we are going to give those who are pressing this cup to our lips a chance to make a record," said Russell.

A Southern filibuster against the House-passed bill was shut off Wednesday when the Senate voted 71 to 29 to put its debate-limited cloture rule into effect. Under this each senator has only one hour to speak on the bill and all amendments.

The Senate acted on 16 amendments Thursday, rejecting all of those not acceptable to the leadership. Humphrey called it "a great day" that encouraged him to believe the bill might be passed even before the end of next week.

"I think we will come out of this pretty much with the package bill we now have," he said. He was referring to the package of amendments drafted by leaders of both parties and Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy as a substitute for the House bill. It retains the House bill's basic provisions but puts more emphasis on voluntary compliance and state enforcement in states that have their own antidiscrimination laws.

Strong Evidence Rumania Is Swinging Away From Red Bloc Toward West

By RICHARD O'REGAN

BUCHAREST, Romania (AP)—Bucharest streets with Russian names are getting new ones. The Russian language is no longer compulsory in Romanian schools. Soviet book stores and institutes are being closed or renamed.

There are hints of bitterness between Soviet Premier Khrushchev and Romania's longtime Communist leader, a Gheorghe Gheorghiu-Dej.

Since Romania signed an agreement last week to trade more with the United States, there has been increasing speculation in the West that Romania may be moving away from the Communist bloc. Cautious Western diplomats in Bucharest believe Romania won't break away from the Soviet Union and other Communist countries—or follow the Yugoslav model. But they say that disagreements are fester than at any time since Romania became Communist in 1947.

Romania probably is the richest of all East European Communist countries in raw materials. She has Europe's largest oil production outside the Soviet Union, and gold, bauxite, extensive wood supplies, methane gas, water power, uranium ore and salt.

For years, most of these raw materials went to other Communist countries.

In 1960 Gheorghiu-Dej decided on a large-scale plan of industrialization. Because Romanians could not get the first-class equipment from the Soviet bloc, they started trading their products in the West, and began buying industrial plants in West Germany, Britain, France and Italy.

Romania's rapid industrialization and its increasing Western trade has not pleased Khrushchev. Since 1962, he has been trying to persuade the Romanians to come back fully into the Communist camp and integrate their economy with Comecon—economic organization of East European states.

Instead, Gheorghiu-Dej has shunned many Comecon meetings and increased trade with the West.

In April, when the Communist leaders were attending Khrushchev's 70th birthday celebrations in Moscow, Gheorghiu-Dej stayed home and met with his Romanian Workers' (Communist) party. In a statement the party attacked Soviet interference in the affairs of Communist countries.

Gheorghiu-Dej then sent his trade mission to the United States. Additionally, Romania has:

1. Inquired about possibilities of joining GATT, the West's general tariff and trade agreement.
2. Considerably relaxed regulations for Western (but not Eastern) tourists to enter the country, obviously to encourage more hard currency from them.
3. Expressed interest in buying two nuclear power plants from Britain or the United States.
4. Quietly cut down Soviet influence in schools and cultural institutions.

Flights Over Laos Will Be Resumed

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)

Premier Souvanna Phouma said today that U.S. reconnaissance flights over Central Laos will resume in the next day or two because "important movements" of Communist forces are under way there.

The flights were suspended Wednesday at Souvanna's request.

"Unfortunately," the premier told a news conference, "recent information reaching us shows that important movements of Pathet Lao and Viet Nam troops are taking place in these (Communist-controlled) zones."

"The flights will therefore be continued and if the Pathet Lao want them to stop it is up to them to create the necessary conditions."

Censor Slip Puts Fleet at Cyprus

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon was caught with its censorship down today.

Throughout last winter's Cyprus crisis—and in the current flareup as well—the Defense Department refused to say whether U.S. 6th Fleet units had moved into position off the island.

"We do not discuss movements of units within a fleet area," is the Pentagon's stock statement.

But the editors of an official Navy publication evidently had not heard.

The June issue of Naval Aviation News carried a chatty little item which spoke of a task force "standing off Cyprus since hostilities erupted earlier this year."

Incidentally, California does the biggest business in fishing licenses. . . they issued 3,823,431; Minnesota was second, Michigan third and Wisconsin fourth.

4 Dead, 112 Are Hurt in Depot Blast

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—Explosions rocked military ammunition dumps across the Ozama River from Santo Domingo through the night.

Officials said four persons were killed and 112 wounded. Flames set by the blasts still raged today, preventing firemen, troops and police from getting close to the dumps.

The explosions caused damage in the city.

Donald Reid Cabral of the government junta said three and possibly five dumps at the army's 27th of February barracks were destroyed. He said investigators were trying to determine the cause. There was an unofficial report the blasts were started by fire in a powder magazine.

Persons in the area heard several carbine shots just before the first explosion. It was believed these were fired by sentries giving the alarm for the fire.

The government put all hospitals and private clinics in the capital on an emergency footing.

U.S. Ambassador William Bennett visited the government house and it was understood he offered help in relief work.

The blasts broke glass doors and windows throughout Santo Domingo and dozens of persons received minor injuries from flying glass, wood splinters and pieces of masonry.

The city was on the verge of panic. In the confusion there was no possibility of an immediate check of the extent of damage or casualties.

On the main street of Santo Domingo, not one store escaped damage. Police and troops stood guard in the commercial districts to prevent looting.

Negro in Mississippi, No Trouble

OXFORD, Miss. (AP)—A Negro registered Thursday for the summer term at the University of Mississippi in sharp contrast to the rioting which accompanied the enrollment of Ole Miss' first known Negro student nearly two years ago.

Cleveland Donald, 17, of Jackson, told newsmen he was at the university to get an education.

Ole Miss returned to its all-white status last October after Negro Cleve McDowell, a law student, was expelled for carrying a pistol.

McDowell followed James H. Meredith, the university's first known Negro student. Meredith, who was graduated last August, arrived on campus Sept. 30, 1962 and a night of turmoil followed in which two persons were killed and several hundred injured.

MONROE, La. (AP)—A third Negro has enrolled at previously all-white Northeast Louisiana State College.

All three attended classes on Thursday without incident.

Scranton's Backers to Keep Trying

By JOHN KOENIG JR.

WASHINGTON (P) A Backers of Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton said today that far from giving up hope they are planning to expand their campaign to make him the Republican presidential nominee.

In the face of the snowballing total of Republican convention delegate votes committed to Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., Richard Peet, chairman of the National Draft Scranton headquarters, indicated his organization still may have an ace in the hole.

"We have half a dozen projects in the works," Peet said in an interview. "We'll make them known when the time comes—and that will be soon."

And one of the earliest congressional backers of Scranton for president, a fellow Pennsylvanian, Republican Rep. Richard S. Schweiker, said that despite developments at the Governor's Conference at Cleveland in the past few days, everyone in the Scranton cause still is hard at work.

"An awful lot can happen before convention time at San Francisco," Schweiker told a newsman. "I think time can be in our favor."

Today in Washington

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington: GUANTANAMO SHOOTING: The United States has denied a charge from Havana that Marine sentries at the U.S. Guantanamo Naval Base had fired on and wounded a Cuban soldier at a nearby guard post.

The Defense Department called the charge "typical of the irresponsible and unfounded allegations originated by the Castro regime."

In Havana, a government source said this was the first time a Cuban had been wounded but "our men have been fired on before."

The Pentagon said in its statement it had checked the report with the base commander and that a "careful investigation has confirmed that no ammunition was expended by Marine guards or any other U.S. personnel last night."

JOBS AVAILABLE: The Labor Department announced Wednesday that the employment outlook is good this year for graduates of junior colleges, technical institutes and other two-year college programs.

"Schools and employers report that persons with training for specific occupations are finding employment opportunities more plentiful than those with a liberal arts background, but no specific major," the department reported.

Some of the best pickings for two-year school graduates are

At the Governors' Conference, Scranton was reported ready to expand his position, making himself more available for a drive for the nomination, following last Saturday's meeting at Gettysburg, Pa., with former President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

However, reports from Cleveland indicated, Eisenhower asked Scranton Sunday morning not to step into any stop-Goldwater movement.

Later that day on CBS' interview program "Face the Nation," Scranton indicated he was available for the nomination but would not work for it. This was little different than the position he had taken months before that he would accept only an honest and sincere draft for the nomination.

Schweiker intimated that this sequence of events "did not help" the Scranton cause.

"We were hopeful that something would come out of the Governors' Conference," said Schweiker. "But we believe we still have a chance inasmuch as we have some five weeks to work before the convention."

Trouble at Augustine Continues

By F. T. MACFEELEY

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. (AP)—After a second straight night march punctuated by violence, the integration drive in the nation's oldest city shifted focus today to D. Martin Luther King's vow to court arrest by civil disobedience.

King, who heads the sponsoring Southern Christian Leadership Conference, indicated he would attempt a sit-in at a segregated restaurant.

This type of demonstration has brought nearly 400 arrests here since Easter.

The last of the demonstrators got out of jail, with the help of a federal court order reducing bonds to $100 a charge, just in time Wednesday night to join 400 integrationists in the march to the old Slave Market downtown.

Despite a police force of 200 or more, augmented by the state highway patrol and enforcement personnel from other agencies, an unruly white mob of about 100 broke through police lines.

The marchers, predominantly Negro, did not fight back as they had the night before, and nine or 10 were injured.

One white youth was pulled from the marching group by a gang of white youths and pummeled before a Florida highway patrolman rescued him.

Four whites were arrested on charges of disorderly conduct, a deputy sheriff at the jail reported. These were the first arrests at the night marches although violence marked two earlier ones.

for those with training in fields of business administration, and medical service and as engineering technicians.

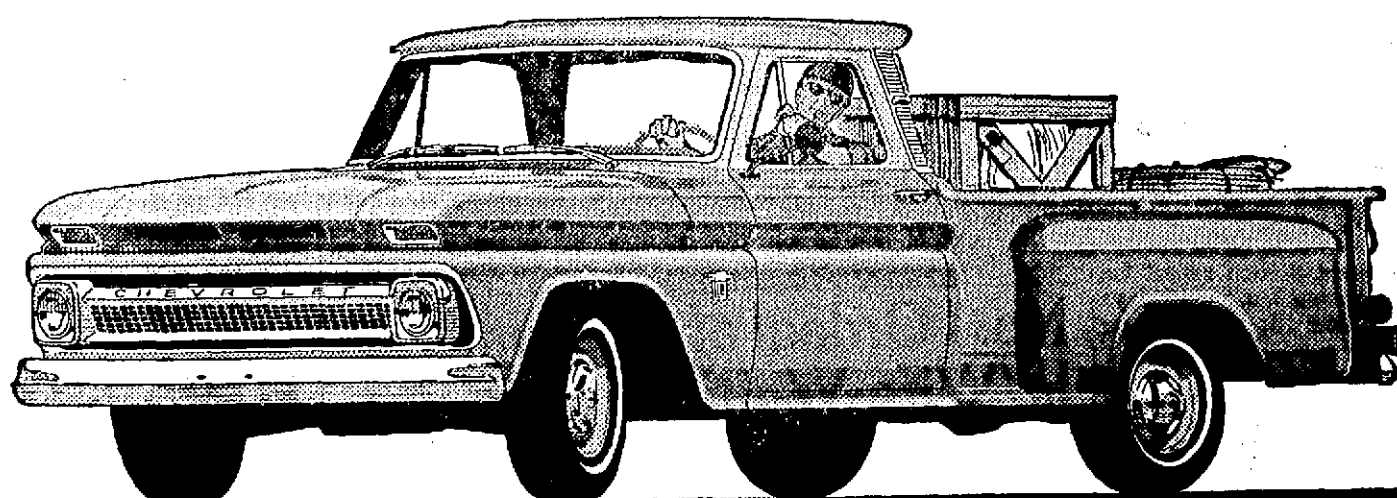

JOB DISCRIMINATION: The President's Committee on Equal Employment Opportunity said Wednesday the federal government is launching an intensive program to end employment discrimination on federal or federally assisted construction projects.

The committee said in a statement the drive will involve a task force of 40 men from various federal agencies which will be broken up in teams of three or four.

The teams will work in 10 regions centered on Atlanta, Chicago, Cleveland, Dallas, Miami, Nashville, New Orleans, New York, Philadelphia and San Francisco.

The comparable U.S. Federal Reserve discount rate still holds at 3½ per cent.

The link between rising prices and interest rates is that by hiking bank charges business booms are discouraged, along with consumer eagerness to borrow to buy goods.

One of the nation's top pedagogical authorities, Miss Hardey will include the following topics: teaching rhythms; preparatory work with children; sight-reading; practicing; lists of early sonatas and sonatinas, student concertos and contemporary music, with discussions and performances.

Miss Hardey will be held in the Dolph Camp Fine Arts Building from 9 to 11 a. m. and 1 to 3 p. m. daily during the Workshop.

Pickets at C. Kennedy Disappear

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—Union pickets whose activities halted missile project construction for three days left the entrance to Cape Kennedy today in compliance with a federal court order.

A newsman who went to the scene said the pickets departed without fanfare at 6 a. m., the deadline set by a U.S. District Court judge.

Work on the John F. Kennedy space center, the Saturn moonport on Merritt Island, and other rocket facilities had ceased when the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way employees set up picket lines to protest use of the struck Florida East Coast Railway for hauling supplies to the area.

Asked whether the June issue had gone through security review, the Defense Department replied with a terse "no."

"We goofed," acknowledged one official ruefully.

Since the presence of Task Force 62 off Cyprus last winter was now out in the open, a reporter tried to find out how long it had been there, how big it was, what kinds of ships were involved, and other details.

"No comment," said the Pentagon, slamming shut the security door.

Erhard in what steps the two countries should take next.

Specifically, these sources said, there was no agreement on a joint U.S.-German appeal for a four-power conference on the German-Berlin issues.

This was one of the points raised at the Rusk-Schroeder meeting, one authoritative source said, but explained it was simply revival of the long-standing German proposal to have a permanent group, probably on the deputy foreign minister level, to review the issues.

Diplomatic sources, on the basis of advance information, viewed the Soviet-East German pact as something much like the treaties the Soviet Union already has with a number of its satellites.

But whatever the nature of the treaty, the Soviet Union has been forewarned that the United States will hold it responsible for honoring previous East-West agreements on Berlin and Germany.

This will be the third meeting between President Johnson and Erhard since the two became the heads of their governments last fall. The East German-Soviet treaty is sure to dominate their talks.

Earlier this week, American sources were skeptical that Soviet premier Khrushchev would rock the boat in this period of East-West thaw by concluding a spectacular agreement with Walter Ulbricht, East German Communist leader and chief of state.

Thursday night these sources conceded that reports from Moscow of the imminent signing of documents of "special significance" convinced them they were wrong.

Later authoritative sources said Soviet Ambassador Anatoly F. Dobrynin had told Secretary of State Dean Rusk Wednesday that the Soviet Union intends to conclude a treaty with East Germany.

In reporting this the sources made the following statement: "The conclusion or implementation of this treaty by the Soviet Union cannot in any case affect the legal obligations and responsibilities of the Soviet Union under agreements and arrangements between the three Western powers and the Soviet Union on the subject of Berlin and Germany."

"The Soviet Union remains responsible to carry out these obligations and responsibilities."

"The U.S. government considers that the government of the Federal Republic of Germany is the only German government freely and legitimately constituted and therefore entitled to speak for the German people in international affairs."

"The U.S. government does not recognize the East German regime nor the existence of a state in Eastern Germany. It remains the goal of U.S. policy to achieve the reunification of all Germans."

American specialists on German affairs said privately they see no reason to be alarmed by a treaty provided it does not go beyond the scope of similar pacts.

A peace treaty, giving the East Germans complete sovereignty including the right to control access routes to West Berlin, would be a most serious matter, officials here stressed.

The United States, Britain and France have made it repeatedly clear since the start of the Berlin crisis in 1948, that the Allies would not tolerate any violation of their rights to be in Berlin and to have free access to the city by unilateral Soviet action.

Scranton Is

up his mind finally at 8:23 p. m. Thursday.

As to what impelled him to make that decision, Conmy said: "You'll have to get the specifics from him."

Asked who Scranton talked with after the decision was made, Conmy replied: "Name any big name and they would be it."

Asked specifically about Eisenhower, Conmy said he thought Scranton talked with the general but couldn't say for certain.

Those close to Scranton described him as deeply disturbed over the leadership trend within the GOP. The sources said he would tell the Maryland organization he will continue to fight for the nomination until the issue is settled.

The announcement by Scranton would put him in direct opposition to Sen. Barry Goldwater. The Arizona Republican presently holds a commanding lead in the battle for national convention delegates.

A key factor in Scranton's decision, sources said, was Goldwater's vote on Wednesday against ending the filibuster in the Senate on civil rights legislation. Scranton long has been an outspoken advocate of civil rights.

Goldwater has indicated he would vote against the civil rights bill itself unless it is changed to meet his specifications.

In announcing his candidacy, Scranton would join a field of GOP contenders that includes Goldwater, New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, Maine Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, and former Minnesota Gov. Harold Stassen.

Goldwater was not available immediately for comment.

In New York a spokesman for Rockefeller said the governor will not change his position "one bit."

Michigan Gov. George Romney, an outspoken opponent of many of Goldwater's views, has said he is not seeking the nomination, but will campaign for a strong platform along lines of the 1960 platform.

He had no immediate comment on Scranton's plans.

Such a Scranton announcement would be a reversal of his long-stated position that he was not seeking the nomination, but would accept a "sincere and honest draft."

Last Sunday Scranton modified his draft statement slightly to say he would be available for the nomination if a majority of the convention delegates wanted him.

The Scranton action capped a week of activity that began last Saturday when Scranton met with former President Dwight D. Eisenhower in Gettysburg.

Eisenhower urged Scranton to make himself "more available" for the nomination.

"DEAR ABBY"

THE TRAMP AND THE LADY!

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: With reference to the letter about why a man, who has a lady for a wife, will pick up a tramp and treat her like a lady, and then turn around and treat his wife like a tramp:

Some time ago you stated in the confidential section of your column: "The worse a man's morals are, the better he wants his wife's to be." How do you reconcile the two answers?

MRS. A.
Dear Mrs. A.: A man whose morals are low wants his wife's morals to be high, but he prefers a tramp for a sweetheart because he has a feeling of worthlessness and inferiority with his wife—but not with the tramp.

And because a man treats his wife like a tramp does not mean he wants her to behave like one. Married men who cheat with tramps have no desire to marry one. Comprehend?

Dear Abby: I am so unhappy I hardly know where to start. I am a middle-aged woman employed as a cook, housekeeper, companion and chauffeur to the most selfish, heartless woman I have ever known. She expects me to eat leftovers that should go into the garbage can. She finds fault with everything I do. When she is going out I have to help her dress, which is a chore, because she tries on a dozen dresses before deciding what to wear, and I have to tell her how "beautiful" she looks in every one or she gets mad. On my day off she lays in bed watching TV all day, and I have to prepare her meals and put them within her reach. She is not an invalid. She plays golf. When she goes out I have to stay up and dressed to let her in, lock up the house, and undress her and put her clothes away. She is a millionaire, but she goes around the house in a quilted robe with the heat turned off to save fuel. Once she made a toll call for me and took 15 cents out of my wages. Jobs are not easy to find. What should I do?

MISERABLE
Dear Miserable: If you remain with this woman, you do not deserve much sympathy. Jobs may not be "easy" to find, but Confidential to "Wants To Be Popular": It is better to sit home for a few weeks—or months—than to date boys who want only a quick physical thrill. After they get what they want, the challenge is gone and you'll be sitting with a bad reputation and memories that will embarrass and burn. Get smart, and date only decent boys, or keep your nose in a good book. These are years for self-improvement—not self-destruction.

UNEASY LIES THE DEAD

The Story: Milo March, checking with the room service waiter, learns that the missing Thomas Rako was not actually seen when the meal was delivered to his room just before he vanished. Rako, the waiter said, was in the shower. March, again checking, learns that the waiter's knock could not have been heard by a man in the shower.

XVII

So the record showed that Thomas Rako had arrived at the hotel at about 5:30 and didn't leave until shortly after 7:30. But suppose he'd really come back to the hotel and left, say 15 minutes later. He should have been able to change clothes and after his appearance slightly in that length of time. And it would have given him almost two hours during which everyone would think he was still in the hotel.

All he would have needed was a little help. Someone who turned on the shower slightly before 7:30, the time the dinner had been ordered, then put a $100 bill on the dresser. Someone who had waited just inside the room, until the knock came, called for the waiter to come in and then stepped inside the bathroom out of sight and called out to tell the waiter the money was on the dresser and to keep the change. No waiter would have thought anything of this normalcy, but with $100 staring him in the face he'd think even less. Then the man, whoever he was, would slip out of the room, wipe the doorknob with his handkerchief, and leave the hotel.

It could have worked that way. Maybe it did and maybe it didn't, but it was a starting place. I sat up on the bed. I put on my shoes, then my tie and coat. I made sure I had my key and left the room. I walked down past the bank of elevators and opened the door to the stairs. I walked down the 10 flights to the basement and stepped out into it.

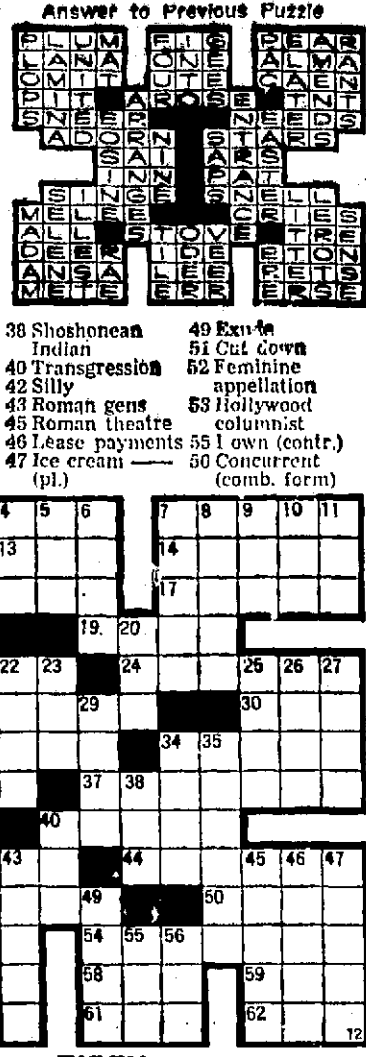

I made a few false starts before I got my bearings and headed for the rear of the hotel. I saw two employees as I went along the corridor, but they paid no attention to me.

It looked like clear sailing and then I came to the exit. There was a man there, sitting on a stool, wearing a gray uniform with the name of the hotel stitched on

McBride, on Relief, Beats Indians 5-4

By MURRAY CHASS

Associated Press Sports Writer

After laboring in vain for nearly two months, Ken McBride has gone on relief and hit the jackpot.

McBride, a 28-year-old right-hander, halted his 10-game losing streak as the Los Angeles Angels nipped Cleveland 5-4 in 12 innings Thursday night.

The one-time ace of the Angels' pitching staff beat Washington 4-0 on opening day, April 13, then lost 10 consecutive games in 12 more starts. His latest start—and defeat—was last Sunday.

Then, against the Indians Wednesday night, Manager Bill Rigney brought McBride in from the bullpen for his first relief appearance since April 19, 1962. He didn't give up a hit in 12-3 innings.

He relieved again Thursday night, coming on this time in a 4-4 game with two on and none out in the ninth inning. He got Vic Davallio on a grounder and induced Leon Wagner to hit into a double play.

McBride pitched two more innings, allowing one hit, before leaving for pinchhitter Willie Smith in the 12th. Smith's single started the winning rally.

The season for McBride has been one of utter frustration. He won 13 games and lost 12 for the Angels last year and had a 3.26 earned-run average.

Elsewhere in the league, Baltimore defeated Chicago 3-1. New York whipped Boston 8-4 and Minnesota downed Detroit 4-2.

In the National League, Milwaukee edged San Francisco 6-5. Los Angeles blanked St. Louis 5-0. Chicago beat New York 6-3 and Houston got by Cincinnati 5-3.

After singling for McBride, Smith was forced at second by Tom Satriano. Ed Kirkpatrick's single and an intentional walk to Jim Fregosi moved Satriano to third from where he scored on Lou Clinton's sacrifice fly.

Dean Chance started for the Angels and ran his scoreless inning string to 28 before Bob Chance singled home two runs for the Indians in the sixth. Dick Howser's two-run single tied it in the ninth. Joe Adcock and Felix Torres each drove in two runs for Los Angeles.

A two-run homer by Brooks Robinson in the eighth carried the Orioles past the White Sox. The blow off Hoyt Wilhelm broke a 1-1 tie. Luis Aparicio homered for Baltimore in the sixth. Tom McCraw got Chicago off to a 1-0 lead in the first with a homer off Milt Pappas.

Mickey Mantle slammed two home runs and Roger Maris one for the Yankees. Mantle connected with one on in the fifth, then slugged his 10th homer with the bases empty in the seventh. Maris' 10th came in the third. All of the blows were off starter Bill Monbouquette.

Ed Bressoud and Felix Mantilla homered against Jim Bouton, who won his fourth game in nine decisions. Bouton doubled and scored in the fifth and belted a two-run single in the eighth.

Dick Stigman and reliever Garland Shifflett stopped Detroit on three hits as Earl Battey knocked across three runs. Don Demeter tagged Stigman for home runs in the fifth.

Battey slashed a run-scoring double in the third and smashed a two-run homer in the fourth.

Boxing Promoter Lyle Pedersen said here Thursday that lightweight champion Willie Pastrano will defend his title in early September against either Bobo Olson or Eddie Cotton in Bozeman, Mont., but that there will be no national television of the match.

Welter Title on Line at Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS (AP)—The world welterweight crown, which has been in and out of the hands of Emile Griffith since 1961, goes on the line again tonight when the New York champion faces ex-champion Luis Rodriguez of Miami.

The 15-round bout will be televised nationally over the ABC network, starting at 7 p.m. (PPT). It will be screened twice in the West instead of coming by delayed tape several hours later, as has been the procedure the past year.

Rodriguez, the 26-year-old Cuban exile who won and lost the title in two fights with Griffith in New York last year, remained an 8-5 favorite to return to the top spot of the 147-pound division.

Griffith, 25, a native of the Virgin Islands, is regarded as the harder puncher, while Rodriguez, who is slightly taller and has a two-inch advantage in reach, might be the better boxer.

Rodriguez in 60 fights has won 56, 22 by knockouts and has never been stopped.

Griffith has won 45 of 52 matches, 16 by knockouts. He was stopped but once, in one round in a non-title fight with middleweight Hurricane Carter in New York last Dec. 20.

This loss presumably is the main reason Griffith rates the role of underdog.

Twins Are on Huge Trading Bee

DETROIT (AP)—The Minnesota Twins indicated their trading may just be beginning following a five player swap with Cleveland and the Los Angeles Angels Thursday.

"We're still trying to get a pitcher," said Twins' Manager Sam Mele. "I don't think we're through (trading) yet."

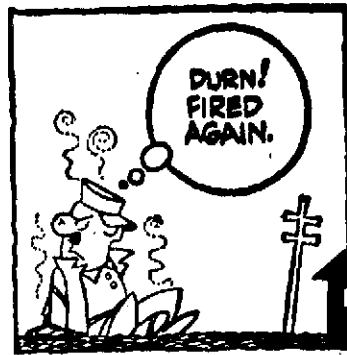

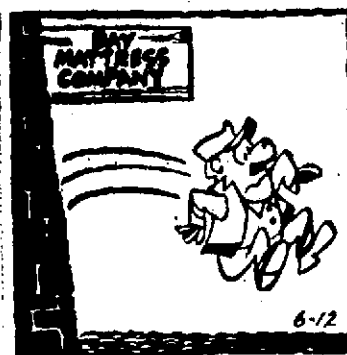

The deal sent fan favorite and first baseman Vic Power from Minnesota to Los Angeles. Angel infielder Billy Moran to Cleveland and infielder Jerry Kindall from the Indians to the Twins.

Minnesota also traded outfielder Lenny Green to Los Angeles for infielder Frank Kostro, now with Hawaii in the Pacific Coast League.

"Kindal can play all infield positions and he can hit the long ball. He can spell (Zoilo) Versalles at short," said Mele. "Kostro swings an aggressive bat. He's always hit wherever he's played."
